J.F.C. TALBOTT HOUSE - c. 1838 - 1 Roundridge Road, Timonium. Large stone and stucco house, ____ bays long; survives in a subdivision. Small Greek Revival attic windows are the only noticeable features on an otherwise plain house. Joshua F.C. Tablott bought some of this land from Rosnell L. Colt in 1838. Talbott was shown as owner on the 1850 map. His son, J.F.C. Talbott, was a Confederate cavalryman and later U.S. Congressman. It later belonged to the Dennison family. Gable-roofed. Good condition.
